

Saturday March 9, 2013

Volunteers needed for Recycling Initiatives and Events

Where:

Beverly Co-Op Community Room, Lafayette Street, Salem (near Wendy's)

When:

Saturday March 9 8:30am-10:30am

Why:

Are you interested in meeting new people, having fun, and taking action locally to improve the environment? Come meet the Salem Recycles Committee on Saturday March 9 (drop in between 8:30-10:30) in the Community Room of the Beverly Co-Operative Bank, on the corner of Lafayette and Derby Streets. Join us for a morning of coffee and conversation about how you can get involved. Committee members will be present to answer questions and share information about the committee's contributions to the environment and how you can volunteer at the events. Be a part of Salem's commitment to reducing trash and increasing recycling. For more information, contact Julie Rose at jrose@salem.com or call 978-619-5679. Please park on the street, or walk or bike; feel free to bring a mug.

Change begins with you!

Contact Julie Rose, 978-619-5679 or jrose@salem.com for additional details
