

North Shore/Cape Ann Community Resource Manual

2016

CHILDREN'S LAW CENTER OF MASSACHUSETTS

YaR YOUTH AT RISK
A Salem State University Community Program

About this Manual

This manual is intended to be used as a guide to the many organizations that serve low-income youth and families in Cape Ann and on the North Shore, which include the towns of Beverly, Danvers, Essex, Gloucester, Hamilton, Lynn, Lynnfield, Manchester-by-the-Sea, Marblehead, Middleton, Nahant, Peabody, Rockport, Salem, Saugus, Swampscott, and Wenham.

In the first section, providers are grouped by the type of services they offer. Because some organizations are listed more than once, all details about an organization, including all North Shore/Cape Ann office locations, will appear in the first entry. Successive entries will contain only the name of the provider, phone number, town, relevant services and office locations, and the page number on which the complete details of the organization can be found.

New in this edition, we have added an index. Check it out!

We apologize for any omissions of, or mistakes relative to, the names of and/or information about organizations. We will endeavor to correct those omissions/mistakes in future editions. In this edition, we have included only programs and services to which a family may self-refer. We hope to expand to all programs/services in future editions.

Feel free to e-mail us at info@clcm.org or contact us by telephone or by mail with changes, additions, or deletions.

The art work that graces the front and back covers was drawn by a nine year old client of Girls, Inc. of Lynn.

Notes

Acknowledgements

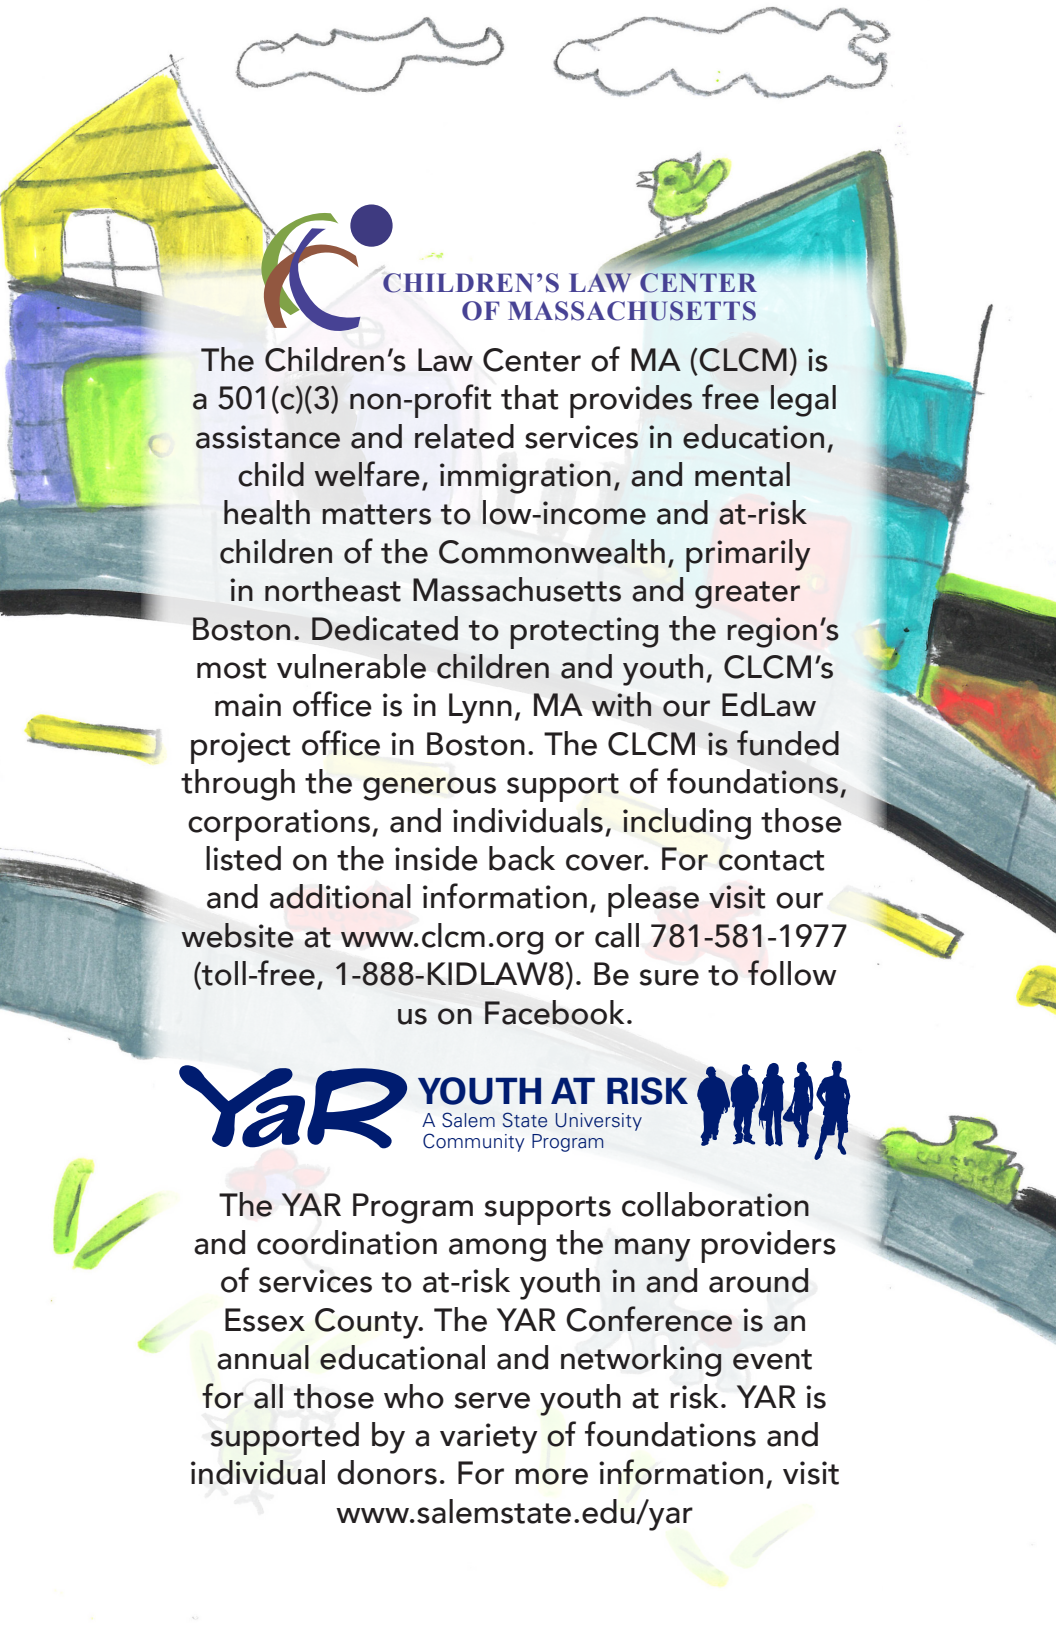

Special thanks to those who are responsible for the development of this manual. Salem State University students, Kelsey Lima, from the social work department, and Brita Rayner, from the graphic design department, provided vital assistance on the creation of this edition of the manual as did Lillie Goldman, a Summer 2015 CLCM intern and University of Rochester student, and Sean Cicero, a Lynn AmeriCorps team member. We also greatly appreciate the support of Salem State University and the staff of CLCM and the Youth at Risk Conference Committee for their work on this edition of the manual.

This Community Resource Manual would not be possible without the work of all involved, from volunteer Jennifer Kurzrok's work on the original edition to the financial support of the John W. Alden Trust on this most recent version.

We acknowledge and thank the staff of those many organizations referenced within the manual who not only offered valuable suggestions and input relative to their own and other programs for this manual, but who also labor long and hard on behalf of their disadvantaged clients on a daily basis. Their efforts are far too under valued and under appreciated.

CLCM also thanks its generous foundation and corporate supporters including:

CHILDREN'S LAW CENTER OF MASSACHUSETTS

The Children's Law Center of MA (CLCM) is a 501(c)(3) non-profit that provides free legal assistance and related services in education, child welfare, immigration, and mental health matters to low-income and at-risk children of the Commonwealth, primarily in northeast Massachusetts and greater Boston. Dedicated to protecting the region's most vulnerable children and youth, CLCM's main office is in Lynn, MA with our EdLaw project office in Boston. The CLCM is funded through the generous support of foundations, corporations, and individuals, including those listed on the inside back cover. For contact and additional information, please visit our website at www.clcm.org or call 781-581-1977 (toll-free, 1-888-KIDLAW8). Be sure to follow us on Facebook.

YAR YOUTH AT RISK

A Salem State University Community Program

The YAR Program supports collaboration and coordination among the many providers of services to at-risk youth in and around Essex County. The YAR Conference is an annual educational and networking event for all those who serve youth at risk. YAR is supported by a variety of foundations and individual donors. For more information, visit www.salemstate.edu/yar
